Ian Anderson

1641 E 115th St, Cleveland, OH 44106

(413)575-6307

ian.anderson@case.edu

SKILLS PROFILE

- Primary experience with Java and Perl
- Some familiarity with the Python, C, and C++ programming languages
- Experience with Windows, some familiarity with Linux (Ubuntu, SLES, etc), basic familiarity with Mac

EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

- Information Security Internship at COCC under Jeff Troutman and Kevin Hamel, Summer 2012
  - Maintained Change Control system
  - Wrote a tool in Java for parsing firewall logs
- Perl Scripter Internship at COCC under Matt Lidestri and John Jaser, Summer 2013
  - Wrote a tool for DNS migrations
  - Rewrote from the ground up a daily-running script that checked the integrity of clients' websites, improving runtime from ~6 hours to ~15 minutes
  - Wrote a script to create sub-logs from daily firewall logs for sending all relevant entries to clients

EDUCATION

Currently In School
- Case Western Reserve University, Cleveland, OH, Class of 2015
  - Computer Science Major with German Minor
  - GPA: 3.0

Non-School Classes
- iD Tech Camps Autodesk Maya Course: 1 week 2011, 2 weeks 2012
- iD Tech Camps C++/Java Course: 1 week each year, 2008 through 2012

Diploma
- Longmeadow High School, Longmeadow, MA, May 2011
- GPA: 3.28

ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- Recipient of the RIT Excellence in Computing scholarship award during senior year of high school, by faculty nomination
- Recipient of German Book Award at Case Western Reserve University, Spring 2013
- 5 out of 5 on AP Computer Science exam without taking the preparatory class